

Please don't allow the banking system to start with the unwanted phone calls here in Indiana. Our attorney general has done a fine job in stopping unwanted phone calls. With the banking system getting more and more into other things it would be just an excuse to phone me about things I don't want to purchase. Particularly over the phone.